Welcome

Some Years ago, a newspaper in England offered a monetary prize to the person who could best answer this question, "What is wrong with the church?" A minister in Wales won the contest. He wrote, "That which is wrong with the church is our failure to realize, and to stand in wonder at the beauty, the glory, the greatness, and the power of the church."

Actually, there is much right about the church. For instance, the church has the right Master. Ephesians 1:22 tells us the church's head or Lord is Jesus Christ! Also, the church has the right membership. 2 Corinthians 5:17 informs us that the membership of a genuine New Testament church is people who have been made new (born again). Thirdly, the church of Jesus Christ is right in its message. The message of the church is the Gospel (Romans 1:16). The Greek word from which we get our word "Gospel" means "good-news." Our message is the good-news of Jesus' death, burial, and resurrection. Indeed, there is much right about our Lord's church!
