February 25, 2018

Welcome!

This weekend the youth of FBC led by Frank and Mandi Carter, have been involved in Disciple Now. Disciple Now is designed to connect Christian youth from across Escambia County.

Hopefully, by coming together the faith of the youth will be strengthened. 2018 is the eighteenth year for D-Now in our county. This year 8 churches from Escambia Baptist Association participated. About 200 youth were involved. On Friday night, the group worshiped here at FBC Atmore. Then on Saturday night they came together at FBC East Brewton. Frank said, "Families from the local churches host students in their homes all weekend as we travel for Worship and mission opportunities. We also have intense Bible Study 4 times throughout the weekend. This year's message is 'Revival not Survival.' We want students to live believing that not only can revival in our world be a reality, but they can also be a part of it. This year, we hope our students will commit to a deeper more passionate relationship with Jesus Christ."

Thank you Frank, Mandi, and all from FBC who were involved.

Dear First Baptist Family,

Marilyn and I are so appreciative of all the kindness, encouragement, financial support, and generosity shown to us by the church, and members in recent days. Thanks so much.

We have gained a new appreciation for you as we have come to realize as we have visited other churches, that the fellowship at FBC is indeed a sweet fellowship accompanied by a sweet Spirit. Thanks also that you have made Dr. and Mrs. Patterson feel so welcome. Dr. Patterson has been very supportive of me, and a great pastor to me.

I was truly blessed to be your pastor for more than twelve years. God still hasn't opened a new door of ministry for us, but we trust that He will. In the meantime, your prayers are appreciated. Thanks again for your kindness and generosity.

--Arnold
