Welcome to FBC, Atmore

There are many phrases that can be used to describe our Lord's church. For instance, one is "Not a Building, but People." FBC, Atmore is not the buildings in which we worship Jesus Christ and study the Bible. FBC is made up of people who believe in Jesus and have been baptized. A second phrase used to describe the church is "Invisible yet Visible." Invisible--The church is made up of all genuine believers of all ages both on earth and in Heaven. Visible--Our church is a body of baptized believers who meet and serve our Lord in our community. A third phrase used to describe our Lord's church is "In but Not Of." Until we are called to Heaven, Christians are in but must not be of our world. A local church is made up of people who are called to be different from this world (2 Corinthians 6:17). Our difference demonstrates the power of our God. Keep praying for the Pastor Search Committee and keep inviting others to worship with us.

Dr. Larry Patterson, Interim Pastor

Thank you

Dear Atmore First Baptist Family,

We appreciate God's people and the love and service given to us during the loss of our mother. She and dad loved FBC Atmore and the people there. We, as children, will always remember our times of growing-up in the church and all that had an affect on our lives. Thanks for the meal, most delicious.

In His service, Debra & Joel Valenti (The Barden Family)
