Welcome to First Baptist Church of Atmore!

Greetings, church family! Tina and I are so very pleased to call FBC our new home. After seeing God's hand move in such affirming ways throughout the transition to

First Baptist, we absolutely believe the Lord is planning some great things through this wonderful group of believers. We thank God, Dr. Patterson, the search committee, and you for the provision, guidance, hard work, and church vote.

I want our time together to be one of joyful faith as we spread the truth of God's love all throughout Atmore and the surrounding areas. A church is a family comprised of children of the Most High. Our attitudes, words, and actions should continually reflect that truth to a lost world. I pray that, together, we will constantly and enthusiastically glorify God, support one another, and minister to others!

This week marks the beginning of our time together. I know you'll want to reach out and invite others to be part of these exciting times for our church family. Let's get started!

In Christ, Pastor Kevin

THE HOMER NIX MEMORIAL FOOD DRIVE

Benefiting Atmore Area Christian Care Ministry

Mr. Nix believed in this ministry. He helped raise funds, and distribute food. It was his successful idea that First Baptist have two food drives each year--including this one!! All food donations to AACCM will show support for the Alabama Crimson Tide, or the Auburn Tigers. Bring food items. Support your team. Help our community.
