Welcome to First Baptist Church of Atmore!

Good morning! Members and guests alike, it is our prayer that you truly worship the Lord today. As we worship together, focus upon God, alone. As the sermon is preached, listen with your heart and soul, ready to apply the truths of the Bible to your life and within the life of the church, community, and world.

Psalm 118:24 reads, "This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it."

Aren't you glad for God's love and provision? He loves us so much he calls the church his bride! How good it is to truly know the love of God in such a personal way. How should this bride appear to the world? To what extent should we work to show others the love of Jesus? Basically, what should be the church's character? In a world having varied expectations of church and churches struggling to maintain relevance in the world's eyes, character counts! The church has a responsibility to show the world the heart of God.

It is a joy to serve this community through FBC. Join us this morning as we worship and grow closer to him.

Pastor Kevin
